

One Person Can Make A Difference: Annual Educational Conference Scholarship Application

To be eligible for this annual conference scholarship you must be able to demonstrate that you are:

- Actively involved in your community
- Expanding that community's knowledge about the role of diet and nutrition on personal and planetary health

Community involvement may include program development, volunteerism, political activism, business development, or any other promotional or educational project.

Awarded each September 1, the scholarship covers registration fees for the Provender Alliance Annual Educational Conference, three nights lodging, meals, and up to $150 in travel expenses.

At the conference, the scholarship recipient will have the opportunity to meet other attendees and speak to the group about his or her project.
